

Imposing USF fees on wireless ISPs would violate the original intent of the USF. The USF is already poorly implemented. Extending it to wireless ISPs would only make things worse. Wireless ISPs have the ability to reach areas cheaply and effeciently. Thus they have the ability provide services in areas that otherwise would go without. Taxing the emerging wireless market and paying ILECs is absurd.